

Called Meeting of the Livingston Mayor and Board of Alderman on July 15, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.

Alderman Present: Ronald Dishman
Kelly Coleman
Ken Dodson
Chris Speck
David Langford
Rex Dale

Alderman Absent: None

Mayor Curtis Hayes called the meeting to order.

Mayor Hayes stated that James Vassilev had appealed a decision that his property located at 719 Hi-Tech Drive was in violation of Title 13, Chapter 1 "Miscellaneous 13-102 of the Property Maintenance Code.

Codes Inspector Kristian Mansell stated that he had cleaned up his yard but that he needed more time to get his vehicles in compliance.

Alderman Coleman stated that appeals of abandoned or inoperative vehicles were to go before the city judge.

Mayor Hayes stated that some issues that are under the miscellaneous code are to be heard by the city council.

Alderman Langford ask who had filed the complaint. If the complaint was not signed as far as he was concerned it did not happen.

David Langford made the motion to dismiss this. Ronald Dishman seconded the motion. The vote was 2 yes with Kelly Coleman, Ken Dodson, Chris Speck and Rex Dale voting no.

Alderman Dodson stated that the complaints did not have to be signed and that this complaint is valid.

Mr. Vassilev addressed the Board. He stated that health problems had hindered him from cleaning up the property. He stated that his goal is to clean up this property and that he has someone to help him.

He stated that he is in the process of buying tags for the vehicles on his property. He would like to have more time to clean up his property.

Alderman Coleman stated that the property looks better and commended him on the work he has done so far.

After discussion, David Langford made the motion to give him 60 days to clean up his property. Ronald Dishman seconded the motion. The vote was 6 yes and 0 no.

Ken Dodson made the motion to adjourn. Ronald Dishman seconded the motion. The vote was 6 yes and 0 no.

Mayor

ATTEST: _____
Clerk

